

Competition and Gender in the Lab vs Field: Experiments with Off-Grid Renewable Energy Entrepreneurs in Rural Rwanda

Data Description: This file contains lab-in-the field experimental data with focus on competitiveness and risk-taking among village level entrepreneurs (VLEs) operating off-grid microenterprises in rural Rwanda conducted between March 2017 - July 2017, as part of the ‘Nuru Energy Project’.

Competitiveness:

The experimental design use follows Niederle and Vesterlund (2007) where entrepreneurs participate solve real tasks under piece rates and tournament situations.

Risk taking

This experiment allows participants to choose between two choices: lottery and sure pay off

Details of design and instructions used for the experiment is explained in working paper:

Klege, Rebecca A., Martine Visser, Manuel Barron, and Rowan P. Clarke. 2020. Competition and Gender in the Lab vs Field: Experiments with Off-Grid Renewable Energy Entrepreneurs in Rural Rwanda. Working Paper. 2020.
